ROBINSON'S COURT STARTS BUSINESS

Judge Robinson's court opened this morning, and a formidable array of cases confronted the Judge on his re-turn from vacation. Pleas were entered in five cases on indictments re-terned by the Territorial Grand Jury and in two cases pleas were reserved

Ramon Rodrigues, who was indict-Ramon Rodrigues, who was indicted on a charge of rape, entered a pleat of not guilty, as did also those others who entered their pleas, whose names and the charged crime follows: K. Anno, selling booze without a license; Namura, assault with a deadly weapon; Alexandria Maria Pak Chee, adultery; and Wong Gock, adultery; All these entered pleas of not guilty. David Keyes, the man who wished to manipulate Father Valentin's moving-picture machine, and who is ing-picture machine, and who is charged with embezzlement as a reault, reserved his plea until next Mon-day, as did also Harry Lancaster, who confessed to an attempt to set fire to a house, and who is charged with

SUGAR SHARES STRONG

A member of the San Francisco Stock Exchange writes to a local corespondent:

"All the sugar shares are strong and plenty of stock could be sold at the bid prices with very little offered illustrated by a remark from one of our members who said. 'It makes no difference what the price of raw is. never look at it any more."
